Post-marketing surveillance of vaccines against COVID-19: where do we stand?

May 28,
2021
webinar

Four COVID-19 vaccines have been marketed in Europe since December 2020. This has happened incredibly fast as a result of a collective effort by regulatory agencies, pharmaceutical companies and the scientific community.

Other vaccines are currently being reviewed by the European Medicine Agency (EMA) and will soon be authorized for use.

However, all the vaccines have been approved for the market on the basis of the so-called conditional approval. This was granted as post-marketing data on the efficacy and safety of COVID19 vaccines were provided to EMA by the pharmaceutical companies to re-evaluate more accurately the risk-benefit profile of such vaccines.

In this regard, numerous post-marketing surveillance programs for COVID19 vaccines have been funded both nationally and internationally and new evidence on the comparative risk-benefit profile of the different vaccines will soon be available.

The aim of this international webinar is to provide an update on effectiveness and safety of the different COVID19 vaccines authorized in the EU, highlighting the evidence that has been generated until now and the areas of uncertainty that requires further investigation.

Course schedule

09:00

Introduction

G. Racagni (President of the Italian Society of Pharmacology)
R. Chandler (Vice-President of the International Society of Pharmacovigilance)
G. Trifirò/A. Capuano (GdL 3F & RWE - SIF)

Chair: Ugo Moretti (University of Verona) and Marco Tuccori (Academic Hospital of Pisa)

09:15

Available vaccines against COVID19 and emerging safety signals from PRAC

Amelia Cupelli (AIFA)

09:45

COVID19 vaccine safety: an European regulatory perspective

Sabine Straus (PRAC EMA)

10:15

Large scale program for COVID-19 vaccine monitoring in Europe: from event cohort monitoring to healthcare database networks

Miriam Sturkenboom (University of Utrecht)

10:45-11:00

Break

Chair: A. Capuano (University of Campania) and G. Trifirò (University of Verona)

11:00-12:30

Round table - COVID-19 and vaccinovigilance: state of the art (in italian)

E. Coscioni (Agenas); C. Cricelli (Italian Society of General Medicine & Primary Care); P. Popoli (Italian National Institute of Health); A.R. Marra (Post Marketing Surveillance Department - AIFA); M. Cattani (Farmindustria - Association of Pharmaceutical Companies); G. Scroccaro (Veneto Region); S. Tonolo (National Association of patients with rheumatic diseases).

12.30-12.45

Questions and answer

12.45-13.00

Concluding remarks

Prof. G. Racagni (President of the Italian Society of Pharmacology)
Prof. Gianluca Trifirò (Chair of 3F & RWE working group - SIF)

ITALIAN CME CREDITS

The webinar gives the possibility to acquire CME credits for all Italian health professions. The course will be carried out remotely by connecting to a multimedia platform, which allows the total tracking of the activity of the individual participant.
