

DXC Technology is looking for Associate Consultant to join Consulting Practice Public Sector industry.

You will be involved in several engagements aimed to support our clients (Public and Private) during their Digital Transformation Journeys.

Responsibilities:

- Market research about IT Platform (both on backoffice and on vertical side);
- Competitive analysis regarding IT Platforms;
- Drafting of project documentation (technical and functional);
- Business Process Analysis;
- Support in designing IT Architectures;
- Take part in large Digital Transformation with cross-functional teams;
- Contribute to project methodologies, tools, and workstep execution;
- Contribute to client management and relationship building.

Skills

- Bachelor's degree in one of the following areas: Computer Science, Computer engineering, Management Engineering, Statistics and Mathematics;
- A proven passion for one of the area explained above;
- Good relational skills;
- Analytical skills;
- Proactivity and ability to work in teams;
- Focus on the goals;
- Attention to details and constant attention to quality;
- Italian mother tongue;
- Good English (both oral and written).

Previous experience (academic or internship) in Public Sector industry will be considered as a plus.

We offer

- Based on experience, candidates will be hired at first level of career path, or for a limited time paid internship (first step of subsequent recruitment);
- International environment
- Professional growth opportunities
- Competitive remuneration package

Administrative office: Pomezia (RM) with Remote possibility to work in Catanzaro.